

Using Morningstar's Investing Classroom

The Morningstar® Investing Classroom offers a series of self-study classes to help build your knowledge of both the financial industry and the different types of investment options available to you.

How to use the Morningstar Investing Classroom

To use the Morningstar Investing Classroom, select a course collection, a course level and a course to complete.

The screenshot shows the Morningstar Investing Classroom homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for Stocks, Bonds, Funds, ETFs, and Portfolios. A red box labeled "1. Select a course collection" points to the "Stocks" tab. Below the navigation bar, a dropdown menu for "Stocks 100" is open, showing options for Stocks 100, 200, 300, 400, and 500. A red box labeled "2. Select a course level" points to the "Stocks 100" option. Below the dropdown, there are several course cards. A red box labeled "3. Select a course" points to one of the course cards. The course cards include "102: Make Compound Interest Work for You" and "103: Investing for the Long Run".

- Easily navigate through course by reading the article and testing your knowledge along the way.
- Find out what you have learned by taking the quiz at the end of each course.

- Be sure to Get certificate for the quiz upon successful completing each quiz with an 80% by providing your name and email address.

The screenshot shows the quiz results page for "Stocks 102: Make Compound Interest Work for You". It displays a score of 80% and the message "Good job!". Below the score, there is a section titled "Get a certificate for this quiz" with a form to enter the user's name and email address. A "SUBMIT" button is located below the form. Below the form, there is a section titled "Review your answers below to learn more." with a list of questions. The first question is "1. Which of the following are not tax-sheltered investments you can use to compound interest?"

- A certificate of completion will be emailed to you which you will need to upload to the StayWell Portal for wellbeing points.
